Howdy,

I am an advocate for efficiency and positive attitude. I believe the combination of those two specific attributes make people smile most often.

You'll hire me to work for your organization because you want results.

I will never ever give excuses - I don't believe in that sort-a-nonsense. Also, I don't believe in fiddling, dillydallying or being petty because time is my most precious, and valuable resource. I certainly would not ever wish to waste your time either (or anyone else's for that matter).

If you want a focused, energetic and smart worker... pick me. Matt G.

p.s. - I'm always looking for a friend too, but when I'm working, I work first and play later.

A LITTLE BIT ABOUT ME (optional)

I bring balance to my life with pushups, pullups and dog walks because I log 60+ hours a week on my PC. Sometimes, I just need a break and will hop on the bicycle and cruise to my Mommaduke's castle to cash-in on a cup of coffee and chit-chat.

Every day, I voice chat with my brobro's on Discord. My oldest bro is Billy - he's from Florida. Brotha Gebfire has 3 kids and my favorite is baby Earl. My younger bro Ty, nicknamed Tygoro... lives in Colorado Springs. It's been over a year, I've still never visited him (it's high on my list though). Ahhh, my youngest bro Zach, he still lives at home with Ma & Pa. He say's he wants to go back to school but all I ever see him doing is reading books and watching UFC fights.

I have one cat, one dog and my favorite best friend in the whole world is named Emily.

That's about it buddy, anything else you wanna know is a bit personal. Other topics I don't talk about are religion, politics and money. Maybe I'll talk about the weather but that's just boring.

Experience

CEO / Founder Maggew Dot Com

January 2007 - Present

Maggew reads and writes English very good, and will ask for clarification when needed. You'll get what you want, with as little delay or misunderstanding as possible. Maggew Dot Com charges more than most WEB Design providers too, there's not many, if any, that can match talent.

CEO / Founder Vondelphia.com

May 2015 - Present

Domains. Hosting. Websites.

Nobody does Shared Hosting better than Vondelphia.com. You'll get Made in USA quality results when you order Domain, Hosting or Website services from Von!

Weekend Manager Lowe's Home Improvement

February 2011 - Jul 2014 Deptford, NJ

Each weekend I patrolled the store to meet, greet plus assist community neighbors with my Home Improvement experience. Every other weekend I co-hosted a free kids clinic (<http://lowesbuildandgrow.com>) too.

If you needed help with anything in the store, I would help. This included tasks like:

- » Mixing & Matching Paint Samples
- » Cutting Glass, Pipe, Wood and Windows Shades
- » Ordered and help design Flooring layouts
- » Transported heavy material (mainly lumber & concrete) using Forklift
- » Answered phones and issued refunds for customers
